EAGLE 78

"This Year"

The Liberty-Benton Annual Staff
presents the book of the year 1978.
Our year.

The staff would like to dedicate this year's book to the cooperation and helpfulness our neighbors showed one another during and after the 1978 blizzard. The warmth displayed at this time, if possible, would have quickly melted the snow and diminished the bitter cold.

Congratulations to each of us in the togetherness we shared in simple caring.

To be young and alive.
For a fleeting moment to feel the cool of vitality, the freshness of spirited heart.
To seek the wilderness of new life
and experience the freedom of youth
in it's many seasons.

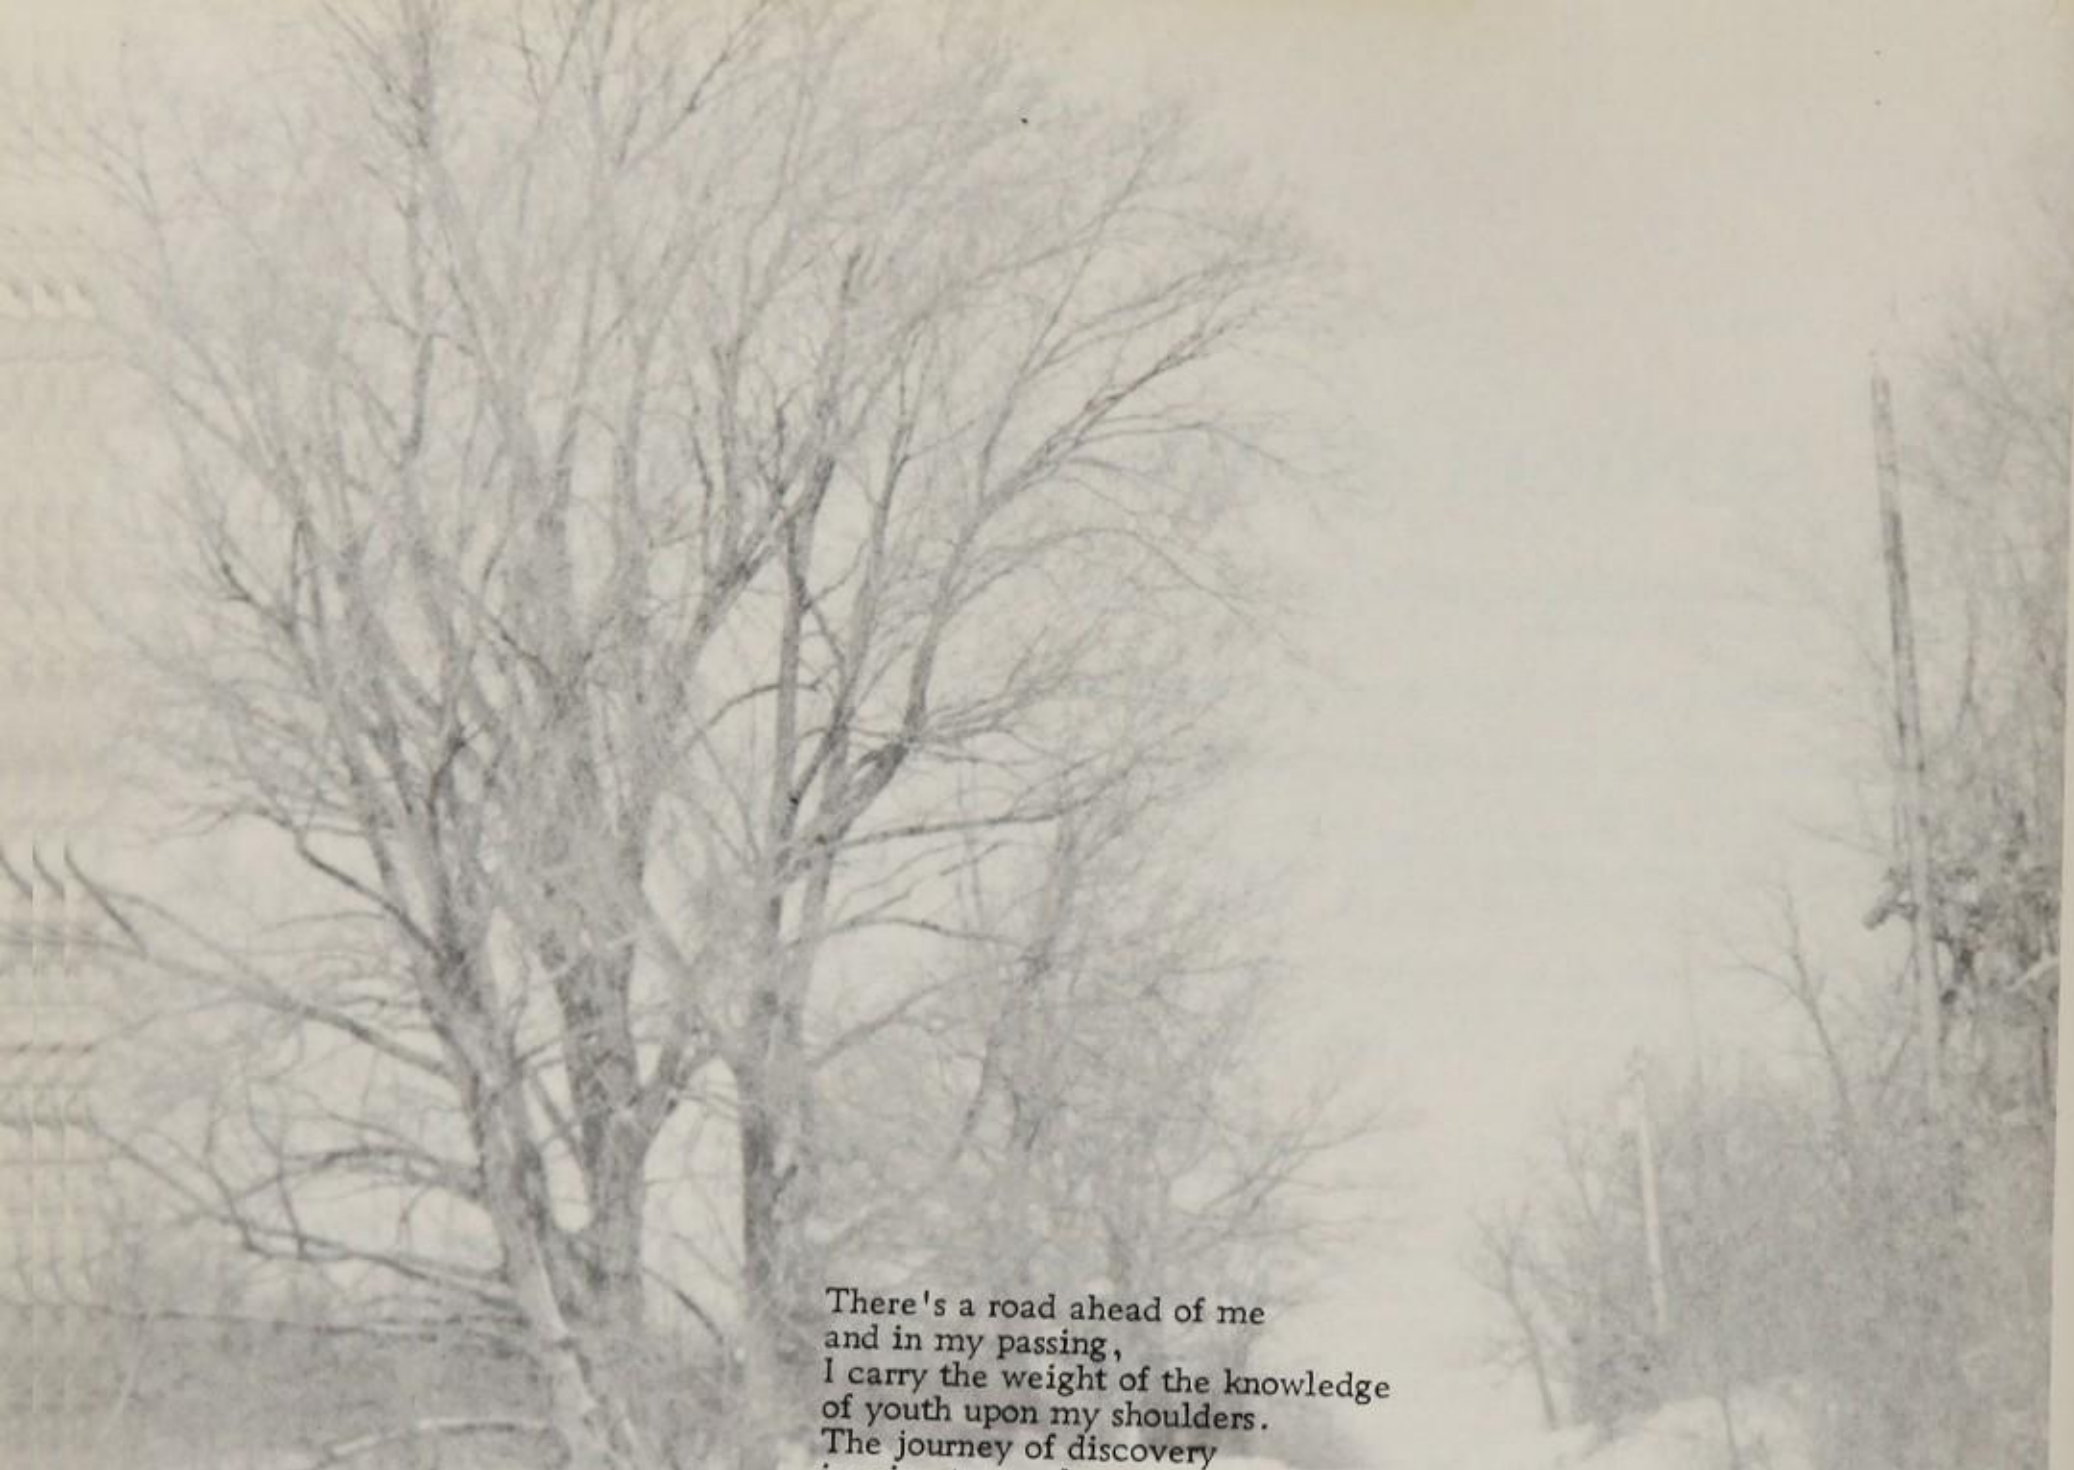
I, KEITH DYSERT, will my truck and insurance debts to anyone who's grandma dies and leaves them a million, they'll need it.



There's a road ahead of me
and in my passing,
I carry the weight of the knowledge
of youth upon my shoulders.
The journey of discovery
is mine to teach.
The path of experience
mine to uncover.

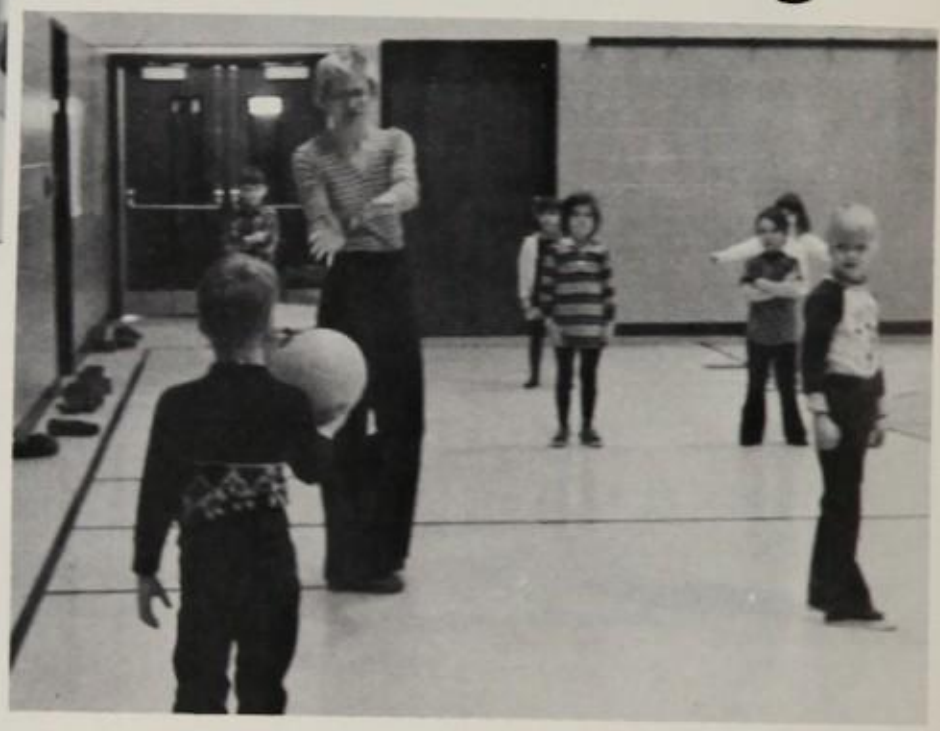
TEACHERS

"You'll never believe this!"



"Give me the ball, kid!"

"I heard that!"

"Children must play!"

L I F E

''What a really neat guy.''

''All spruced up for a night on the town.''

''Grease is the word!''

A lot to look forward to
so much to look back on.
Growing together,
watching each other change
and mature ... and leave.
Our graduation lies in years to come.
Years that now seem so far ahead,
soon to seem so very short.

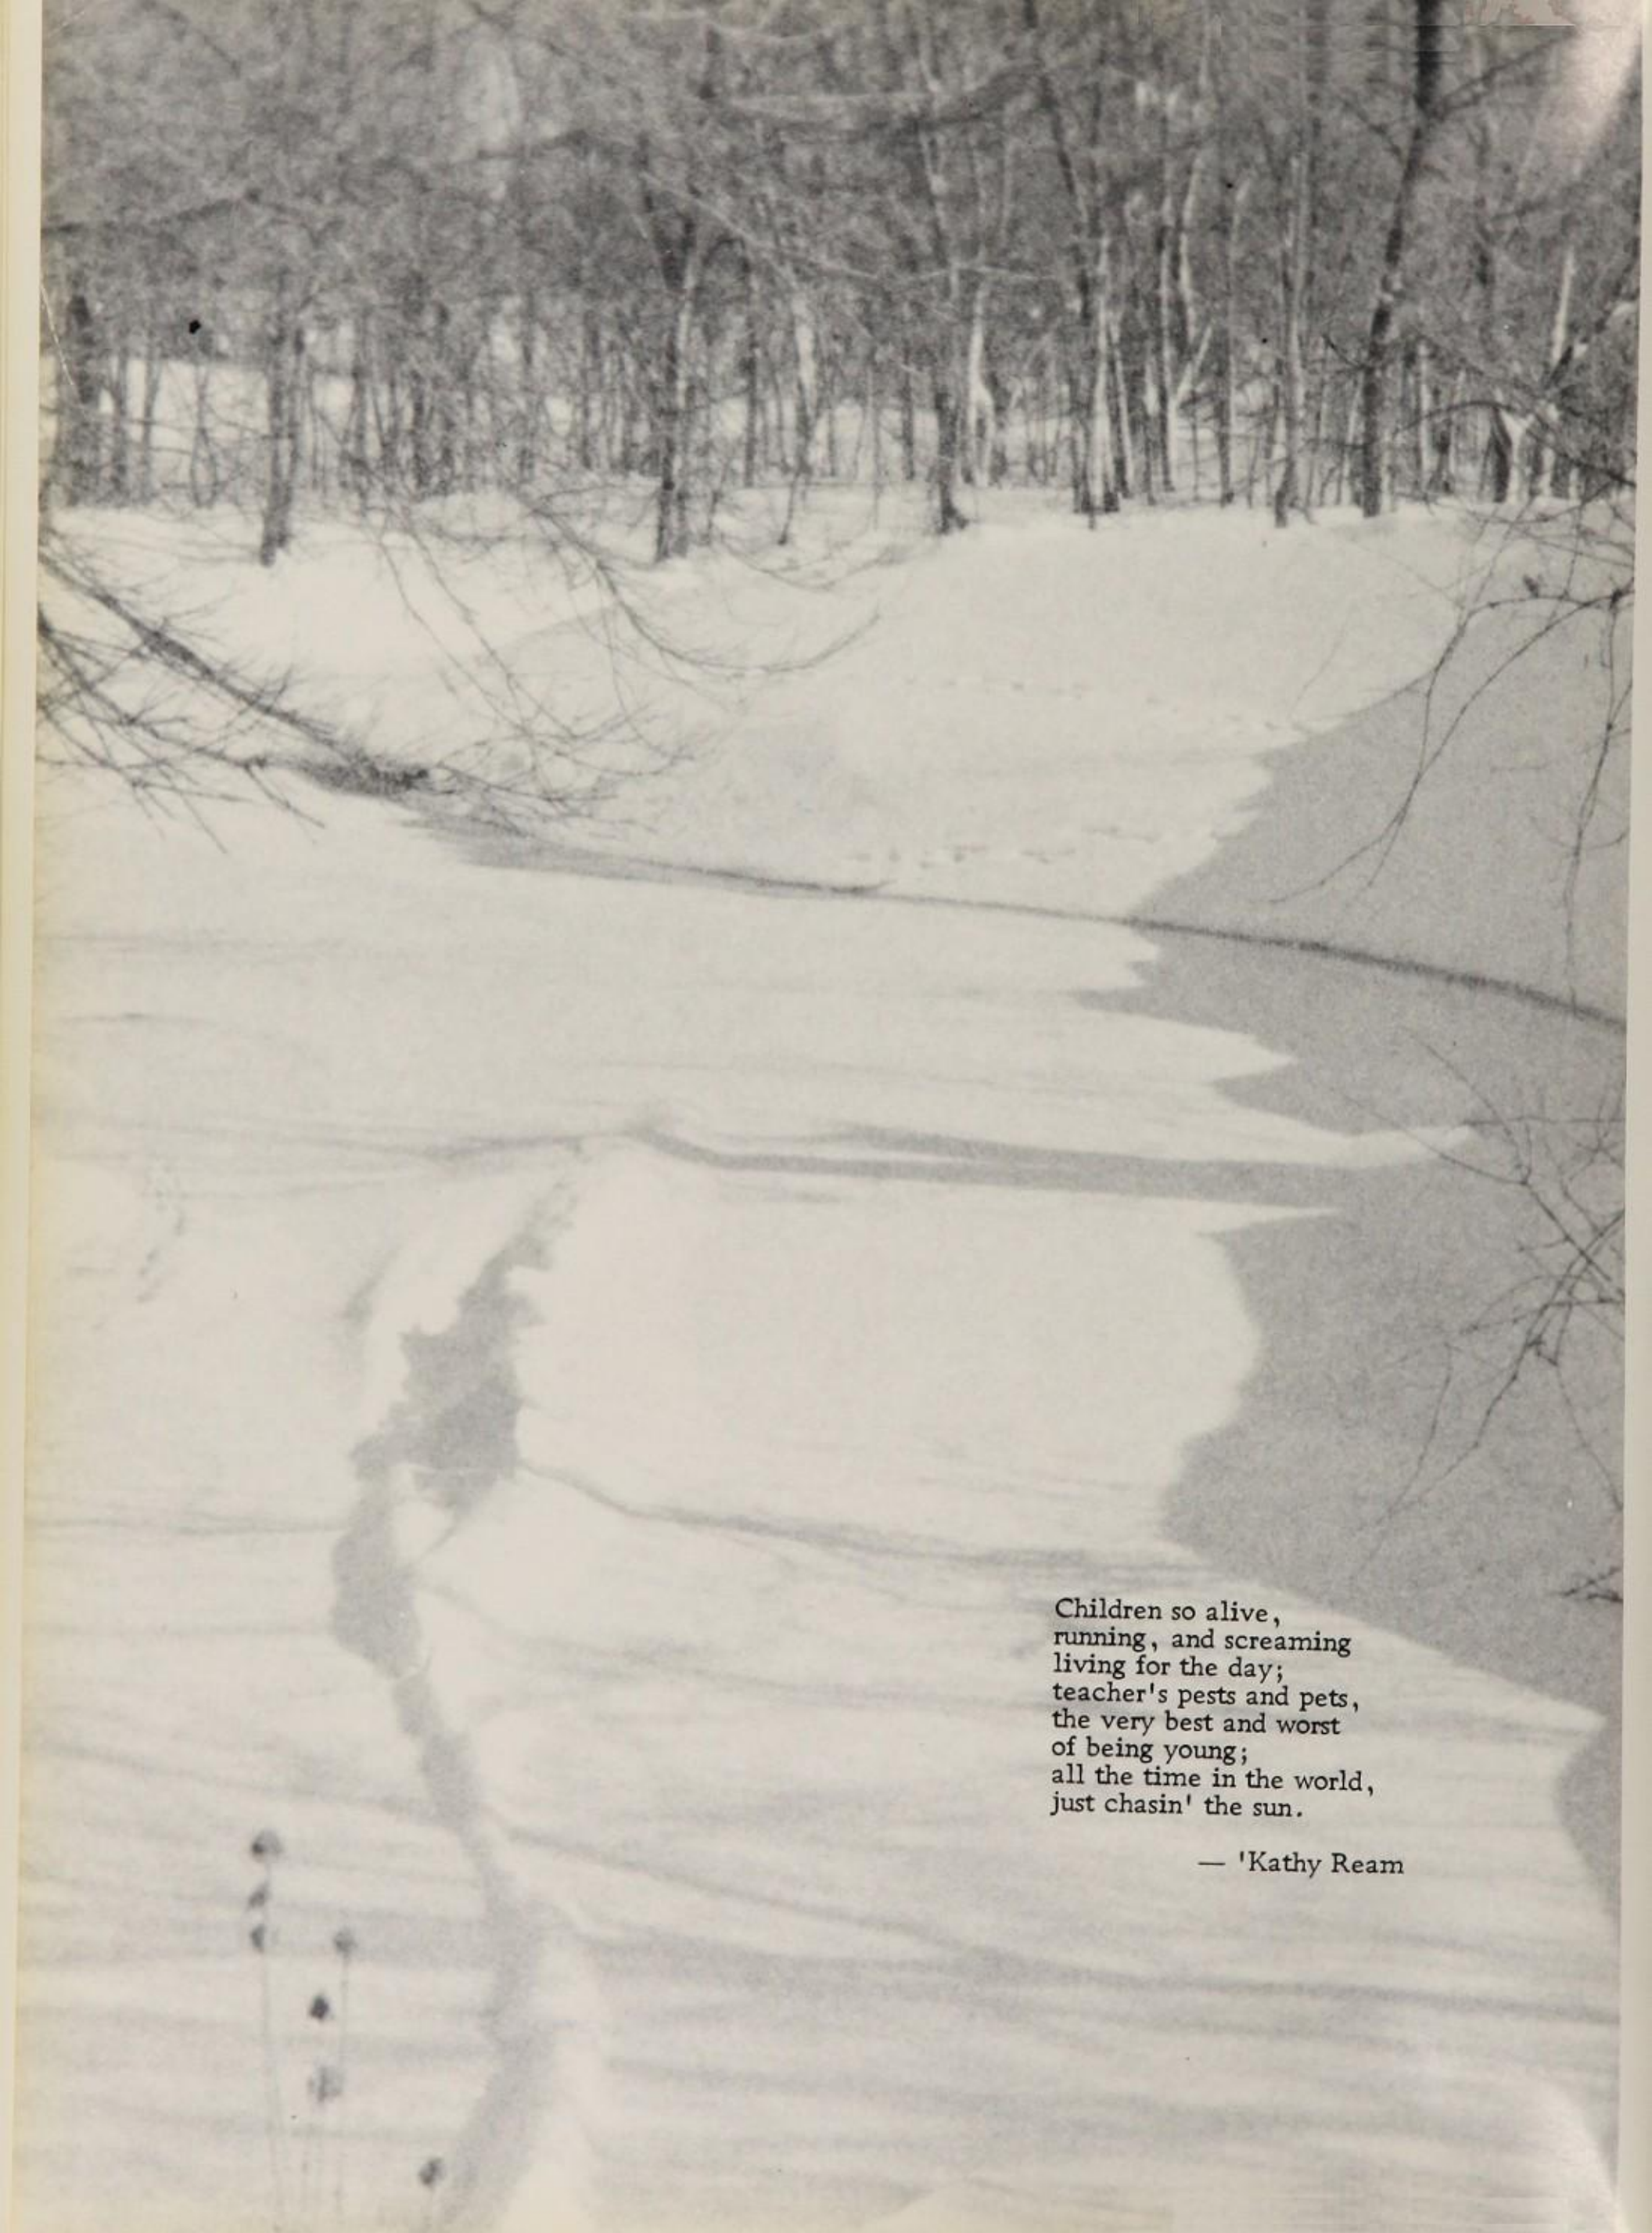
SIGN UP HERE FOR MEMORIES!



Children so alive,
running, and screaming
living for the day;
teacher's pests and pets,
the very best and worst
of being young;
all the time in the world,
just chasin' the sun.

Liberty Benton was privileged to have the company of a special group of classmates. These beautiful children create a different learning experience for both them and us. We hope they're as comfortable here as we are having them with us.

Kids are great to have around. Whether they're just having a good normal time, clownin around, or being little animals.

To compete.
And learn the difference between
real loss or real victory
to make an effort
to fully participate,
fully support,
fully appreciate the experience
of being an athlete.

"Resting Tom?
You should be

So many years too quickly gone.
Now as I walk these corridors
soon to be a graduate,
voices echo and faces flash
upon the cold, straight walls.
Tomorrow I won't belong here,
tomorrow this strong building
will be only a part of my past.
I leave hoping that somewhere
there will be a trace of me
that will linger on the minds
of those left behind,
that a small part of my life
will be occasionally remembered at L-B.
